CUB SCOUT ROUNDTABLE PLANNING GUIDE

The CS RT PG is issued
The 2017-2018 CS RT PG may be found at - http://www.scouting.org/filestore/cubscouts/pdf/510-714(17)_CS.pdf

On page 37 of the 2017-2018 CS RT PG it states:

Introduction to the New Cub Scout Interest Topic Format for 2017–2018

Based on survey input, the National Cub Scouting Committee has modified the presentation style for the Cub Scout (CS) interest topics for this year. To improve communications throughout the pack leadership, it is recommended that all CS leaders attend the interest topic discussion together as a single group. This new method will provide everyone with the same information and will facilitate important discussion about these topics between all CS leaders. As always, the CS Roundtable Planning Guide provides suggested options for each council or district. The use of any specific topic is flexible based on the needs of the council or district. Each council or district may also select other topics that would be beneficial to the needs of the CS leaders in their respective council or district. Additional resource materials from the BSA can be used if the district chooses to do individual leader breakout sessions. The Philmont CS Roundtable Supplements are a great resource to consider for the breakout session model.
Scott McKenzie, the Roundtable lead on the National Commissioner Service Team, posted the following on the Commissioner Service (Boy Scouts of America) Facebook page:

The 2017-2018 Cub Scout Roundtable Planning Guide has finally been completed and posted to the BSA Commissioner Roundtable Support webpage.

“You will notice that the material in the CS RT Planning Guide is significantly different this year. Based on survey input, the National Cub Scouting Committee has modified the presentation style for the Cub Scout interest topics for this year. In order to improve communications throughout the pack leadership, it is recommended that all Cub Scout leaders attend the interest topic discussion together as a single group. This new method will provide everyone with the same information and will facilitate important discussion about these topics between all Cub Scout leaders. We recommend everyone try the new method to see how it works in your district. This will further validate any input you may have for future changes.

As always, the Cub Scout Roundtable Planning Guide provides suggested options for each council or district. The use of any specific topic is flexible based on the needs of the council or district. Each council or district may also select other topics that would be beneficial to the needs of the Cub Scout leaders in their respective council or district.

Additional resource materials from the BSA can be used if the district chooses to utilize individual leader breakout sessions. The Philmont Cub Scout Roundtable Supplements are a great resource to consider for the breakout session model. These optional support materials will continue to be available on the Roundtable Commissioner Facebook Page and can be emailed to individuals upon request.

We understand that there will be a lot of opinions on this new format and the National Commissioner Service Team would like to collect your feedback to provide to the National Cub Scout Committee, who develops the program content for the CS RT Planning Guide. Please provide constructive comments only. If you like the new format, please say so and if there are additional things you would like to see in the program content please provide a description in your comments. We will also be conducting various surveys over the next several months to collect your input for future program content. Private emails can also be sent to BSARoundtableChair@gmail.com

Youth Protection Training

There is no badge or patch for your uniform to signify that you have completed Youth Protection Training (YPT), yet this training is required before you can even register to be a leader in the Boy Scouts of America. Since BSA now requires completion certs for YPT to be included with an Adult Application, this is a good time to emphasize the importance of this training. This training is not only for new leaders, but it is required to be renewed every two years. If your Youth Protection Training is not current at the time of your Unit Recharter, you will not be reregistered.

I heard a great idea at a Council Commissioners Meeting focusing on Youth Protection Training. Just like the firefighters promote changing your smoke detector batteries when you change your clock to and from Daylight Saving Time, you should get in the habit of taking the on-line Youth protection training every year in April. Smoke detector batteries last longer than the few months between time changes, but we change them anyway, just to be safe. In the same manner, taking Youth Protection Training every year ensures that you are always current. – Pat

from Scouting.org

Youth Protection

The following is a small excerpt from the Youth Protection page at the scouting.org web site. The full page, which contains many useful facts and links, may be accessed at: http://www.scouting.org/Training/YouthProtection.aspx.

The Boy Scouts of America places the greatest importance on creating the most secure environment possible for our youth members. To maintain such an environment, the BSA developed numerous procedural and leadership selection policies and provides parents and leaders with resources for the Cub Scout, Boy Scout, and Venturing programs.

Leadership Selection

The Boy Scouts of America takes great pride in the quality of our adult leadership. Being a leader in the BSA is a privilege, not a right. The quality of the program and the safety of our youth members call for high-quality adult leaders. We work closely with our chartered organizations to help recruit the best possible leaders for their units.

The adult application requests background information that should be checked by the unit committee or the chartered organization before accepting an applicant for unit leadership. While no current screening techniques exist that can identify every potential child molester, we can reduce the risk of accepting a child molester by learning all we can about an applicant for a leadership position—his or her experience with children, why he or she wants to be a Scout leader, and what discipline techniques he or she would use.

Mandatory Training

• Youth Protection training is mandatory for all BSA registered volunteers.
Youth Protection training must be taken every two years. If a volunteer’s Youth Protection training record is not current at the time of recharter, the volunteer will not be reregistered.

Youth Protection Reporting Procedures for Volunteers

There are two types of Youth Protection–related reporting procedures all volunteers must follow:

- When you witness or suspect any child has been abused or neglected—See "Mandatory Report of Child Abuse" below.
- When you witness a violation of the BSA's Youth Protection policies—See "Reporting Violations of BSA Youth Protection Policies" below.

Mandatory Report of Child Abuse

All persons involved in Scouting shall report to local authorities any good-faith suspicion or belief that any child is or has been physically or sexually abused, physically or emotionally neglected, exposed to any form of violence or threat, exposed to any form of sexual exploitation, including the possession, manufacture, or distribution of child pornography, online solicitation, enticement, or showing of obscene material. You may not abdicate this reporting responsibility to any other person.

Steps to Reporting Child Abuse

1. Ensure the child is in a safe environment.
2. In cases of child abuse or medical emergencies, call 911 immediately. In addition, if the suspected abuse is in the Scout's home or family, you are required to contact the local child abuse hotline.
3. Notify the Scout executive or his/her designee.

Reporting Violations of BSA Youth Protection Policies

If you think any of the BSA’s Youth Protection policies have been violated, including those described within Scouting's Barriers to Abuse, you must notify your local council Scout executive or his/her designee so appropriate action can be taken for the safety of our Scouts.

You do not have to be a registered member or have a member ID to take Youth Protection training.

To take Youth Protection training go to MyScouting.org and create an account.

From the MyScouting.org portal, click on E-Learning and take the Youth Protection training.

Upon completion, you may print a certificate of completion to submit with a volunteer application or submit the completion certificate to the unit leader for processing at the local council.

When your volunteer application is approved, you will receive a BSA membership card which includes your member ID number. After you receive your membership card, log back into MyScouting, click on My Profile and update the system by inputting your member ID number. This will link your Youth Protection training records, and any other training, in MyScouting to your BSA membership.

PACK ADMIN HELPS –

Western LA County Council

Pack Committee Planning Meeting

The Pack Committee Chair leads the monthly Pack Committee Planning Meeting. The agenda for the monthly Pack Committee Planning Meeting should include the following:

Evaluate the Previous Month

Cubmaster (CM) leads discussion on past month's activities, solicits comments and suggestions, makes notes to help planning the next month.

Finalize the Current Month

Assignments for current month are confirmed. Special Committees make reports.
Den Leaders (DL) turn in advancements to Advancement Chair (or designated committee member).
Den Leaders turn in Den Dues.

Plan Ahead

Committee Chair (CC) leads discussion about upcoming month's activities, pack meetings, and den meetings.
CM comments on next month's den and pack meetings and confirms assignments.
Special committees report.
DL's report on their den meeting plans.
Webelos leaders and/or Activity Badge coordinators report on their plans.
CC reports on pack needs, problems, and progress.
Committee completes plans (e.g. form new dens, pack-troop relations, financial matters, family participation).
Conduct a Leadership Enhancement
These take about ten minutes and may be found in the Cub Scout Leader Book Appendix. They make excellent reminders of duties, responsibilities, rules, and other stuff in bite size pieces.

Social Time and Fellowship
Allow time for all to enjoy a snack and talk informally. If someone has to leave, of course they may.

The Committee Chair's responsibilities during the meeting continue after the meeting and throughout the month. Here are a few hints I have learned. Judy

Tiger (and other) Recruitment:
Tiger recruitment is important and needs to be continually addressed. I am a person who uses as few words as possible. I linked up with the BSA planning guide and other resources.

Most packs are connected with a school or church where they should hold at least semi-annual recruitments.

Pictures say a thousand words.
Use pictures of Tigers / Cubs doing fun stuff in your flyers. That means you need to plan fun stuff for the recruitment event.

Keep your stuff organized. Know what worked last year (or what was a dud) I have wasted more time scrambling for resources. i.e. where did I put that when I needed it the most scenarios.

District Events
Our district has struggled with annual recruiting events. We identified when our district does do a recruiting event it is usually held in some obscure location where we do not get enough visibility in the community.

This year one of our pack leaders who going thru Wood Badge has a ticket item to put on a district recruiting event. We want it to be at a place where we get a lot of exposure.

What fun activities can you do:
Our pack has done Tiger Kite events which went well. This you will find in the Tiger Resource Book.

I have put on raingutter regatta demonstrations at school PTA, open houses, etc. That's the easiest one to put on.

Paper rockets is another one. My husband put together the contraption that worked the best. See picture - Where to find the schematics for some of these things. Write me at the E-mail address above and I can send you the files we use. If you live near me, I have always made available what we have for packs to borrow. Many Packs do not have a handyman to build stuff or they have too little time until the event to develop all the stuff needed to put on the program.

What are YOU going to do now?

The best gift for a Cub Scout.......get his parents involved!
The greatest gift you can give your child.....good self respect!

ROUNDTABLE HINTS

Attendance Incentives
Barbara J. Hicklin, ACC – Roundtables(Emeritus) DelMarVa Council

From the Cub Scout Roundtable Planning Guide:
“Now that you have succeeded in getting leaders to attend a roundtable, how do you keep them coming back? A well-planned roundtable program will inspire leaders to try the program ideas they see, and they will want to come back next month for more ideas, fun, and fellowship. But with the many demands on leaders’ time, you may want to consider using other incentives to ensure continued attendance, including awards, competitions, and rewards for regular attendance. That little something extra might make the difference on an extremely busy day”

See the Guide for more information on:
Name Tags with vinyl lace to collect attendance beads • Slide of the Month • Certificates • Pins • First-nighter recognition • Cubbies or Trophies • Traveling Totem • Cub Scouting Bucks • Door Prizes or • Special Drawings.

Back in 1994, our traveling totem was a tablecloth. The Pack with the largest number of leaders in attendance was charged with adding an embellishment. At the end of the year the table cloth was given as recognition. Many years later the individual embellishments were returned to the respective Packs. Our pack had all the adults and youth members autographed a 6” x 6” square. To this day I cherish that small square of fabric and enjoy the memories of those years shared with our Pack family. What a treasured keepsake.

Promotion gets them there the first time.
Good program gets them to return.

Remember -

EPIC ROUNDTABLES -

E - Exceptional & Experiential
Strive to present an exceptional and experience based program

P - Personally & Program Relevant
Make the presentation personally and program level relevant to the Leaders who attend.

I - Instructional & Inspiring
Structure your program so that it is an instructional experience, providing examples of the method of delivery, that motivates and inspires Leaders

C - Concrete
Bring all of these components together at one place at one time, to deliver a concrete experience that provides Cub Scout Leaders with what they need to deliver a successful program at the Den and Pack level.
WHAT’S NEW FOR LIONS FOR 2017-2018

There is a new PowerPoint available at http://scoutingwire.org/lion/ with everything you need to know about changes to the still a Pilot Lion Program.

Highlights include:

- Lots of new recruitment help, for example:
  - A new PDF brochure PDF is on-line.
  - A Recruiter patch is available!
  // And other recruitment hints and materials.

- A Lion may wear either the Lion Cap and Tee shirt (Currently, $3 discount if you buy hat and Tee together!!) or, if he and his parents desire, the Blue Cub Scout Field Uniform.

- Attendance at Pack Meetings is acceptable.
  Packs should find ways to actively involve the Lions in PM program, activities, skits, etc

- Pinewood Derby is a Pack decision – Lions may participate in Pinewood Derby (Use of wedge car is mentioned to minimize cutting) or hold a “Veggie Derby.”

Later in this item you will find links to all Bryan’s Blog entries (that I know) on the Lion Program.

Lion pilot program for kindergarteners off to a roaring start, with exciting changes coming for 2017-2018
August 14, 2017

Based on feedback from parents, as well as surveys and focus groups, the BSA has some changes to announce to the Lion pilot program for this fall. The link is: https://blog.scoutingmagazine.org/ Then search for LION (singular not plural)

WHY SHARED LEADERSHIP?

- Engages the families and helps create ownership of program by families.
- Creates a stronger loyalty and connection to the den, families, and Scouting.
- Provides an opportunity to watch potential leaders in action—as a unit or pack considers future leaders.
- Millennial parents want to try things out before committing. They prefer to commit to small roles first.
- The boys love watching their “parents be the leader!” (Ask them for their meeting in front of their son. Watch how he encourages them to do it! (Please, Please Mommy! (Daddy!) You can do it!) be sure to tell them, all you need to know is in the “Parent and Leader Guide.”

Pre-Cut Pinewood Derby Wedge Kit, SKU# 614417
The same top quality pine blocks that are used in the Official Pinewood Derby® Kit pre-shaped into a wedge with pre-cut axle grooves. Eliminates the need for woodworking tools or skills. All you need to do is add wheels, weights, sand and decorate for a car that is ready to race!

ORGANIZING FOR LIONS

From – New Birth of Freedom Council

For those packs that are thinking ahead about participating in the Lion Scouts program, having the right volunteers involved in delivering the Lion Scouts program will be important. Research shows that the most important person for a successful Scouting experience is a good leader. There are two new adult leader positions within the pack that are directly engaged in the delivery of the Lion Scouts program – a Lion Coordinator and a Lion Guide. Where do these positions fit into the current pack structure? What is the Lion Coordinator’s job description?

• Is an experienced and successful den leader
• Understands den and pack operations within the overall structure of Cub Scouting
• Demonstrates excellent communication and organization skills (and will remain in at least monthly contact with the Lion dens)
• Participates as needed in the unit’s School Night with all new Lions and their parents
• Assists the Lion guide in hosting the first orientation meeting for all the individual Lion dens in their pack
• Serves as a coach and mentor for Lion Guide

HIGHLIGHTS

• 61% of Lion parents indicate they have no other child in Scouting. We are reaching Families new to Scouting as well as siblings of Scout families.
• 91% of parents say their Lion will be moving to Tigers and 82% of Lion Guides say most will stay.
• Satisfaction is very high 90%. For the T-shirt, shared leadership, age appropriate activities, youth Adventure book, immediate recognition stickers, meeting duration, frequency and content. The Leader Guidebook is not intimidating and is simple and easy for new parents to follow for effective meetings. Adventures are engaging for the boys.
Lion Parents say developing character is the #1 reason to join Scouting.

THE CHIEF SCOUT EXECUTIVE ON LIONS

What We Know  According to a 2014 U.S. Census Bureau report, 57 percent of kids ages 6–17 participate in at least one after-school extracurricular activity. This means that by the time they are eligible for Tigers, more than half of them already are engaged in some type of athletic, artistic or other program.

Often, children become attached to lifelong activities at an early age — that is certainly a goal we would have, as we know the long-term benefits of Scouting involvement include strong asset development in the areas of character and leadership. However, we also know that when youth participate in numerous activities at an early age, and miss joining Scouting, they are unlikely to do so at adolescence.

What will be important to learn in the next few years, if the initial entry point works at the kindergarten-age level, is will this cause losses at a different age, or will the program keep the same retention all the way through to Boy Scouting?

What we learn from the pilot Lion format could also help us assess and create a smoother transition from Webelos into Boy Scouting. Too many parents now see a barrier or obstacle, rather than a smoother transition. You will often hear parents say, “We did Cub Scouting, now we’re not sure if we are going to do Boy Scouts.” We do not have a seamless transition into Boy Scouts for a number of reasons. This pilot test will help us think through some of these issues.

We want to be sure that our Lion program delivers the right mix of character and leadership values and that we set the bar high. The program must be sustainable, we must have the right infrastructure to support it, and it needs to meaningfully address the needs of parents who want their kids to join Scouting at an earlier age.

You can rest assured that we will carefully evaluate our progress and keep you apprised of the results. Stay tuned.

- Cubmaster Tom, responded providing links to documents he formatted to paste into the boys’ books for each modified Adventure. See example below:

  The complete Tiger document is at: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1ka_AkwxDKgNjLrAOUHzbQQqCkruDCC8RyxtMFvrFO8/edit?usp=sharing. The links for the other ranks are in the comment on Bobwhite Blather.

- Bert Bender, Atlanta Area Council, replied, Having finished several deep dives through the requirements changes, I’ve updated the page at http://www.southfultonscouting.com/node/3557 to not only show exactly what got changed and what didn’t change, but now also add comments intended to be a practical guide to whether you need to look at the new 11/30/16 language, and whether when those might be a useful alternative.

Comments after some Adventures encourage (sometimes plead) that dens avoid the “easy button” approach. Doing the June 1, 2015 handbook elements will often result in better outcomes and experience in Cub Scouting.

- Utah National Parks Council’s Akelas Council Blogspot has revised paper tracking sheets (http://akelascouncil.blogspot.com/)

Thanks to Celeste Hunt for creating these.

Celeste says, “Tracking, planning, and recognition are so important in Cub Scouts. This new tracking sheet helps you to be able to keep track of where each boy is at towards the Bear, Adventures, and Cyber Chip requirements. I print 2 copies of the tracker on cardstock for each boy. One for his book and one for my leader binder. I place it next to the trackers for the religious and other awards we are doing. I have tab for every boy with all his trackers. Complete information on each boy in one place. Not every boy is there every week. By doing this, I always know what each boy has done. If the parents ever have questions, I have a place to check, and I can always copy each tracking sheet to show them where their boy is.

ON-LINE TRAINING

On-Line Training for all Cub Scout positions has been available since October 25, 2015

The online training for Den Leaders, Cubmasters, Committee Chairs and members, and Chartered Organization Representatives is totally updated with help from volunteers from around the country. The new training is divided into shorter, more targeted modules so leaders can get the training they need, in the order they want, any time they need it. It is organized around the learning needed prior to the first meeting, in the first 30 days, and to be position-specific trained. This training was developed to be implemented in conjunction with the BSA’s new learning management system. Keep an eye on my. Scouting Tools (log in at https://My.Scouting.org) for more information.

A Typical Learning Plan has several parts –

There is no need to complete more than one section at a time. Do what you have time to do.

Here you can see the three parts of the CM Course -
